California Colleges Integration

• Both CSU and California Colleges launched new applications in June with very aggressive timelines, two new vendors and new technology.

• CCGI, CSU and our two vendors are working around the clock to ensure that the integration between the two systems is live and fully functional on October 1st.

• Should we face any delays - We will post a message within the Cal State Apply application asking applicants to check back later to use this functionality. Applicants will be able to work on other portions of the application during this period.
