2008 Diversity Conference
Diversity Pathways to Student Success

Who should attend?
Students, staff and faculty representing universities and colleges from the greater San Diego community are invited to attend. Workshops facilitated by students, staff and faculty.

This Conference is especially beneficial for: Student Organizations, Student Government, Residence Hall Coordinators, Greek Organizations, University Faculty, Student Leaders, Advisors.

When
Saturday, April 26, 2008. Check-in begins at 7:00 am. The Conference runs from 8:00 am – 4:30 pm.

Where
Courtyard Level of Aztec Center, SDSU

Themes
The conference will offer attendees several themes that will cover a variety of topics:
Theme I: Black and Brown Voices, Men as Allies
Theme II: Sexism, Identity and Belonging
Theme III: Issues in Minority Health
Theme IV: Diversity in Higher Education

What’s included
Continental breakfast and box lunch are provided.
During lunch, join in on one of the many exciting roundtable discussions on a variety of timely subjects. Arrive at the conference early to sign up for your favorite topic. Seating at each table is limited.

For more information or to register, go to: www.sa.sdsu.edu/intercultural/conference