ALTERNATIVE MEDIA REQUEST FORM

Please use a separate form for each class

Name ___________________________ RedID # ___________________________
Phone ______________________________ Email ___________________________

Class Title ___________________________ Instructor ____________________________
Subject/Dept. _________________________ Course # _________ Schedule # _________

NOTE: For textbook information, go to the Aztec Shops online booklist. After receiving your request, SDS will conduct a search to determine whether a digital version is available.

Fill in the textbook information for the book title(s) you are requesting for the course:

Book Title __________________________________________________
Edition __________ Year _______________
Author ______________________________
Publisher ____________________________
ISBN # ______________________________

Book Title __________________________________________________
Edition __________ Year _______________
Author ______________________________
Publisher ____________________________
ISBN # ______________________________

Book Title __________________________________________________
Edition __________ Year _______________
Author ______________________________
Publisher ____________________________
ISBN # ______________________________

Book Title __________________________________________________
Edition __________ Year _______________
Author ______________________________
Publisher ____________________________
ISBN # ______________________________

Please check if you have instructional materials for this class in Electronic Course Reserves (ECR) that need to be converted to alternative format? We will contact the library.

Please check if you have instructional materials for this class in Blackboard that need to be converted to alternative format. If checked, you will need to provide the file on disk to Sev Reyes when made available by the instructor.