OTHER FOREIGN LANGUAGE TESTS

Registration Procedures

To register for any exam listed below, email the following information to Euro.coord@sdsu.edu:
Your name, email, phone number, Red ID number and/or SDSU ID. Registration is not done through the Testing Services web site.

Language Proficiency Tests

The Language Proficiency Tests are taken for two purposes: (1) As a challenging exam to satisfy foreign language requirements for Liberal Arts and Science majors; and/or (2) to waive 200-level language courses that are prerequisites for more advanced classes. The test is open to any Liberal Arts and Sciences major and any student wishing to waive the appropriate 200-level courses.

Tests offered

- French Language Proficiency Test
- German Language Proficiency Test
- Italian Language Proficiency Test
- Russian Language Proficiency Test

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Test Date</th>
<th>Registration Deadline</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2019 - TBD</td>
<td>2019 - TBD</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

If you are interested in a language not listed above, please contact the appropriate academic department to inquire about any language proficiency tests they may offer.

Note: According to the SDSU General Catalog, some language requirements may also be satisfied through Advanced Placement (AP) credit, College Level Examination (CLEP) credit, and/or International Baccalaureate (IB) credit.

Information contained herein is subject to change without notice.